General responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial period which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper books of account which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them ensure the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2014 and all Regulations to be construed as one with that Act. They are also responsible for ensuring the company otherwise complies with the provisions of the Act relating to financial statements insofar as they are applicable to the company. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the company and hence to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.
