

UZARK LTD
Dormant Financial Statements
For the Financial Period Ended 28/02/2026

Director's Report

The director confirms that the company remained dormant for the entire financial period and did not engage in any trading activity.

The company did not undertake any commercial operations, and no revenue was generated during the period. No expenses were incurred other than any minimal statutory obligations required to maintain the company on the register.

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis that the company was dormant throughout the financial period.

The director intends to proceed with the voluntary strike-off and closure of the company following completion of statutory filing requirements.
