Statement of Director's Responsibilities and Declaration on the unaudited Financial Statements

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.In preparing those financial statements the directors are required to :

(a) Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
(b) Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
(c) Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper books of account which disclose with accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act ,1963 to 1990. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Director's Declaration on Unaudited Financial Statements:
In relation to the financial statements as set out on pages 7 to 12
(a) The directors approve thee financial statements and confirm that they are responsible for them, including selecting the appropriate accounting policies, applying them consistently and making, on a reasonable and prudent basis, the judgements underlying them. They have been prepared on the going concern basis on the grounds that the company will continue in business.
(b) The directors confirm that they have made available to Fox Larkin & Associates, all the company's accounting records and provided all the information necessary for the compilation of the financial statements
(c) The directors confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the accounting records reflect all the transactions of the company for the year ended 30th June 2008.

REPORT OF THE ACCOUNTANTS TO THE DIRECTORS OF SOLORAD LIMITED PURSUANT TO SECTION 18(3) of the companies (amendment) act 1986

In accordance with the engagement letter, and in order to assist your duties under the Companies Acts, 1963 to 2009, we have compiled the abridged financial statements of the company which comprise the Balance Sheet and the related notes from the books of account and information and explanations you have given to us.

This report is made to the company's board of directors, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagment, Our work has been undertaken so that we might compile the abridged financial statements that we have been engaged to compile, report to the company's board of directors that we have done so, and state those matters that we have to state to them in this report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's board of directors, as a body, for our work, or for this report

We have carried out this engagement in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Certified Public Accountants in Ireland and we have complied with the ethical guidance laid down by the Institute relating to members undertaking the compilation of abridged financial statements.

You have acknowledged on the balance sheet as at Tom Fox your duty to ensure that the company has kept proper books of account and to prepare abridged financial statements that give a true and fair view under the Companies Acts, 1963 to 2009. You consider that the company is exempt from the statutory requirement for an audit for the year.

We have not been instructed to carry out an audit of the abridged financial statements. For this reason, we have not verified the accruacy or completeness of the books of account or information and explanations you have given to us and we do not,therefore,express any opinion on the abridged financial statements.
